IN THE HIGH COURT OF BOMBAY AT GOA

MISC.CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 625 OF 2005

IN

SECOND APPEAL NO. 67 OF 2004

SHRI SAUNSTHAN GOKARN PARTAGAL JIVOTTAM MUTT ....Applicants

Versus

SHRI NARAYAN R.DESSAI(SIN.DEC.) THROUGH L.RS., ...Respondents

Mr. M. S. Usgaonkar, Senior Advocate with Miss P. Kamat, Advocate for the applicant.

Mr. M. S. Sonak, Advocate for the respondents No.1(a) to 1(f), 2(b), 2(d) to 2(g), 3(a) to 3(e), 5 and 6.

Coram:- R. M. LODHA, J.

Date:- 1st September, 2005

P.C.

Heard. There is no obection by the learned Counsel for the respondents if the civil application is granted.

Accordingly, the civil application is granted and the appellant/applicant is permitted to add the grounds as per the proposed draft amendment. The necessary amendments be carried out in the memo of appeal within a period of two weeks from today.

The civil application stands disposed of accordingly.

R. M. LODHA, J.